

Conservation Education Awards Presented

The Richland County Conservation District recently presented education awards to two outstanding leaders from Richland School District One. Mrs. Odell Anderson, second grade teacher at Gadsden Elementary, was chosen Conservation Teacher of the Year for 2006 and Jeannetta W. Scott, Southeast Middle School was chosen Conservation Principal of the Year for 2006.

Awards for the Earth Day Poster Contest, for kindergarten through the fourth grade, were presented to classes from approximately fifteen public and private schools throughout Richland County.